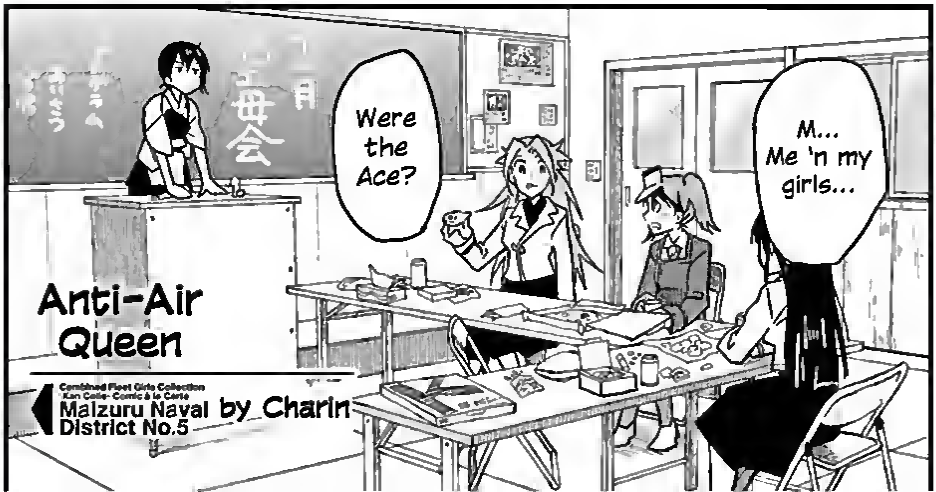
Ah... Now that the party is in full swing, I have an announcement to make.
On behalf of Kure Naval Base,
I will now declare this season's Ace carrier...

Light carrier Ryuu-jou,
And her crew of fairies.



Were the Ace?

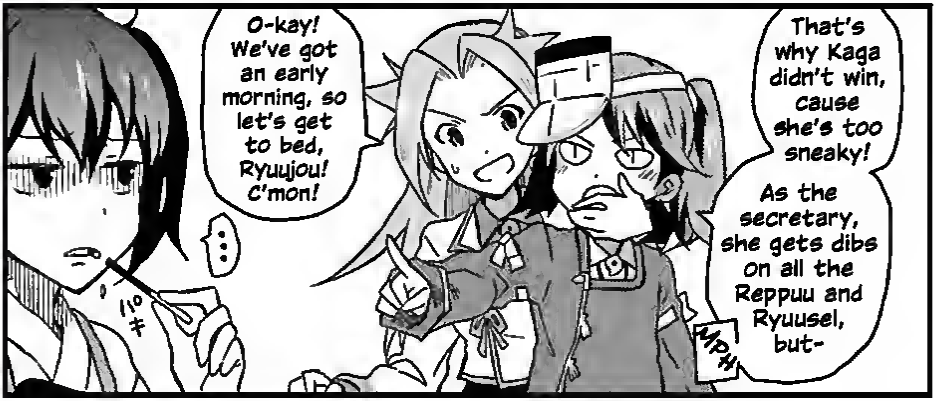
Thanks a ton, you guys!
Not even Kaga shot down as many planes as us!
We did it-!
We did it-!
We really did it-!
And not just in combat; you've done an admirable job training your crew lately.
Though they're not quite as disciplined as mine
Well I'll be; even Kaga's doin' it!
Though you said a bit too much
I'm impressed, Ryuujou!
Come get a victory drink!
Aha
All this praise's startin' to make me blush~
Cheers!
To our fairies.
To Admiral!
To Ryuujou!

It's about heart! 'Snot about how many planes you got!
This's what I been sayin' forever!



O-kay! We've got an early morning, so let's get to bed, Ryuujou! C'mon!
That's why Kaga didn't win, cause she's too sneaky!
As the secretary, she gets dibs on all the Reppuu and Ryuusei, but-110キ
WHY!

...In that case,
There is something I'd like your help with.

If'n there's anything you can't handle, you come to me, ya' hear? Ahahaha!
Anyway, I'm the Ace of Kure!

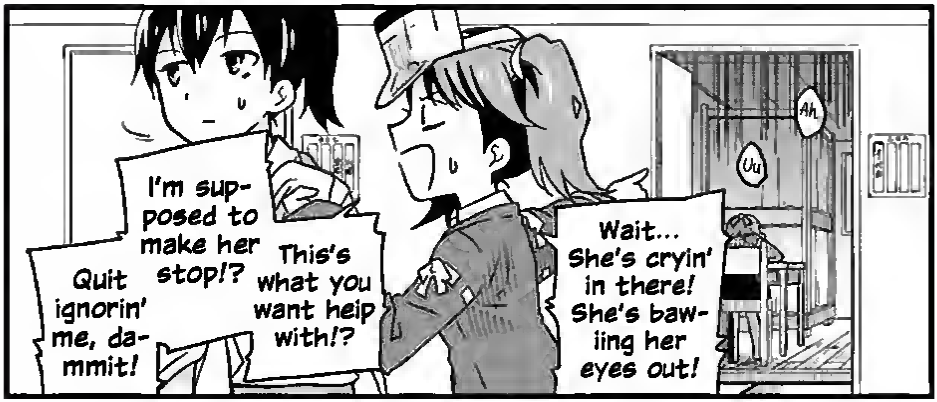
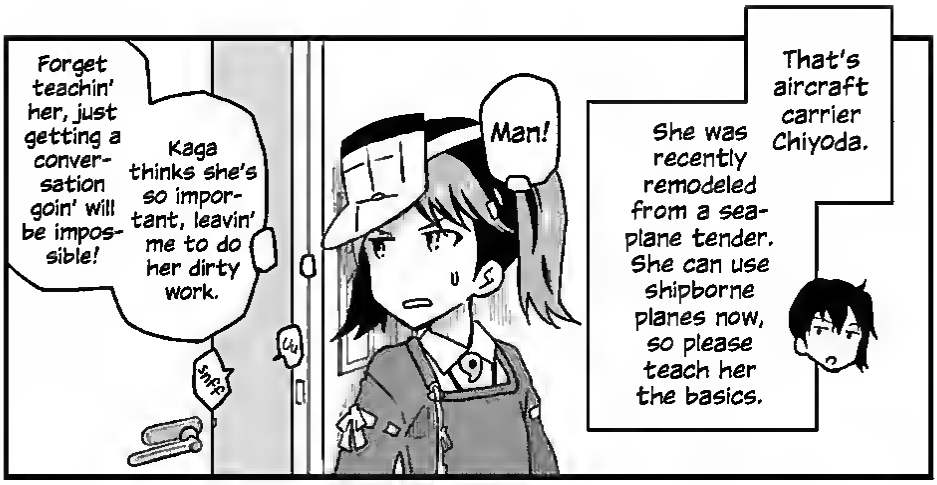
Aa
Uu
Wah hhh...
Uu wah
Uuh
Uu
Smnf



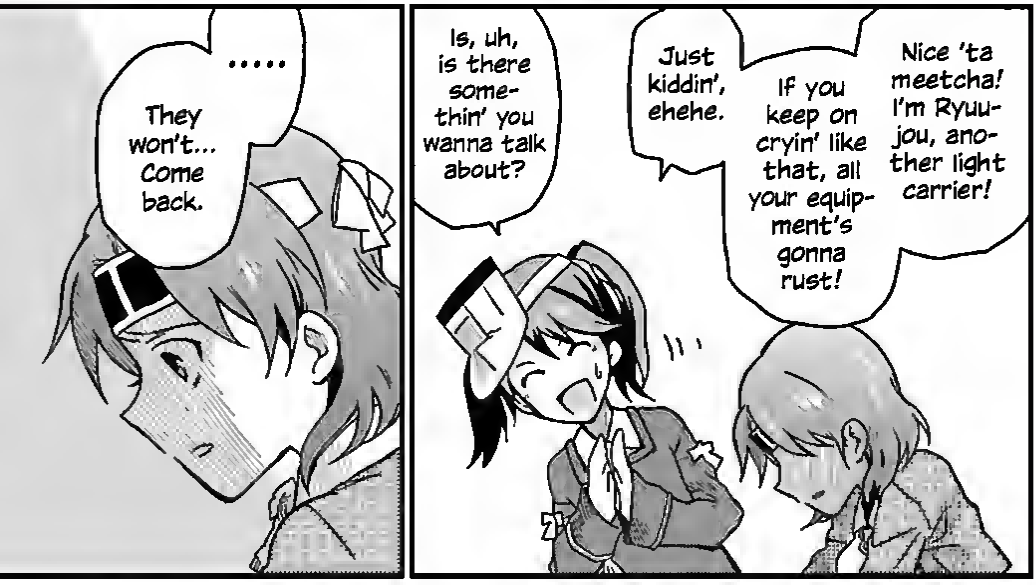
I'm supposed to make her stop!?
Quit ignorin' me, dammit!
This's what you want help with!?
Wait... She's cryin' in there! She's bawling her eyes out!
Ah
Uu

Hey! Don't leave me alone here! Kaga-!
Well then, I'll leave you to it.
A'''
I'm very busy with my duties as the secretary ship, so...
Quit your jawin! You just don't wanna deal with her!



That's aircraft carrier Chiyoda.
She was recently remodeled from a seaplane tender. She can use shipborne planes now, so please teach her the basics.
Man!
Kaga thinks she's so important, leavin' me to do her dirty work.
Forget teachin' her, just getting a conversation goin' will be impossible!
sniff

Whatever, there's no backing down now!
There's nothin' Kure's Ace can't do!
H-Hey you!

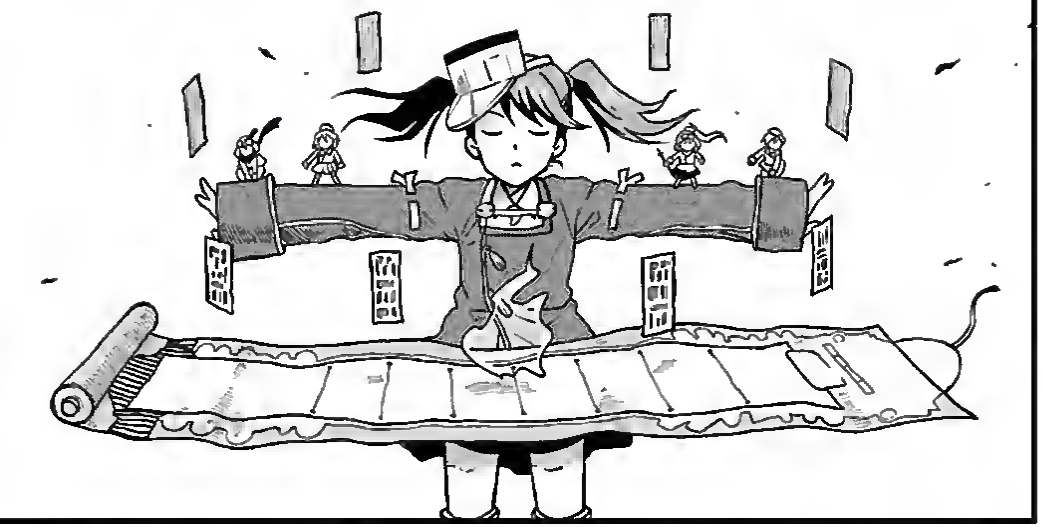


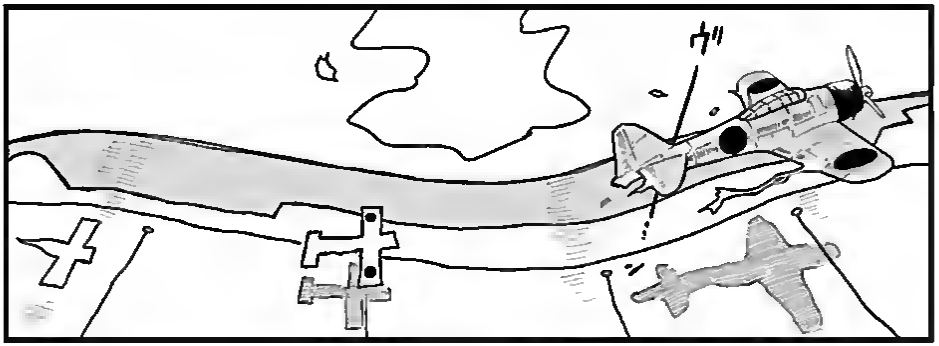
Nice 'ta meetcha! I'm Ryuujou, another light carrier!
If you keep on cryin' like that, all your equipment's gonna rust!
Just kiddin', ehehe.
Is, uh, is there somethin' you wanna talk about?
.....
They won't... Come back.

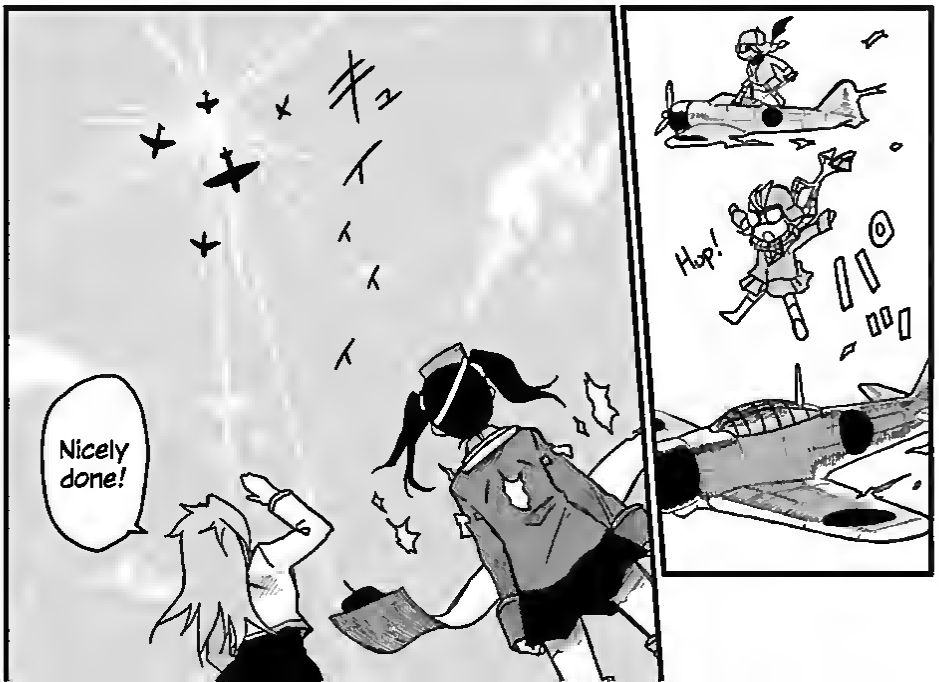
I keep sending letters, but I can't get a response from Chitose-onee who's stationed in Oominato...
Her lett-ers...
Well, I can under-stand why that'd make ya upset...
What's not com-ing back, your planes?
W-What if the Admi-ral there is taking advantage of her...
gulp
After all, Chitose-onee always res-ponds right away...
It's really impor-tant!
AH!
Lett-ers?
Hold up, that's all this's over?
Yeah! I think I heard somethin' about that!
It's just uh... Trouble with the mail trans-ports!
Stop! Hold it-!
I think I'm just going to take a quick trip up to Oomi-nato...

The mail?
Well, the transports are short on guards, so they're running behind schedule...
See? I told ya!
Your big sis's fine, so cut the cryin', okay?
Anyway, you're one of Kure's carriers now.
You can't keep clingin' to your sister all the time.
We gotta get you in the groove with some training.
An' so, lemme introduce you to some reliable carrier buddies!
This's Junyou, and...
Sup?
I'm Izumo M...
I mean Hiyou! Let's get along!

Now I'm gonna send off my planes, so look close, Chiyoda-!
Here I go!

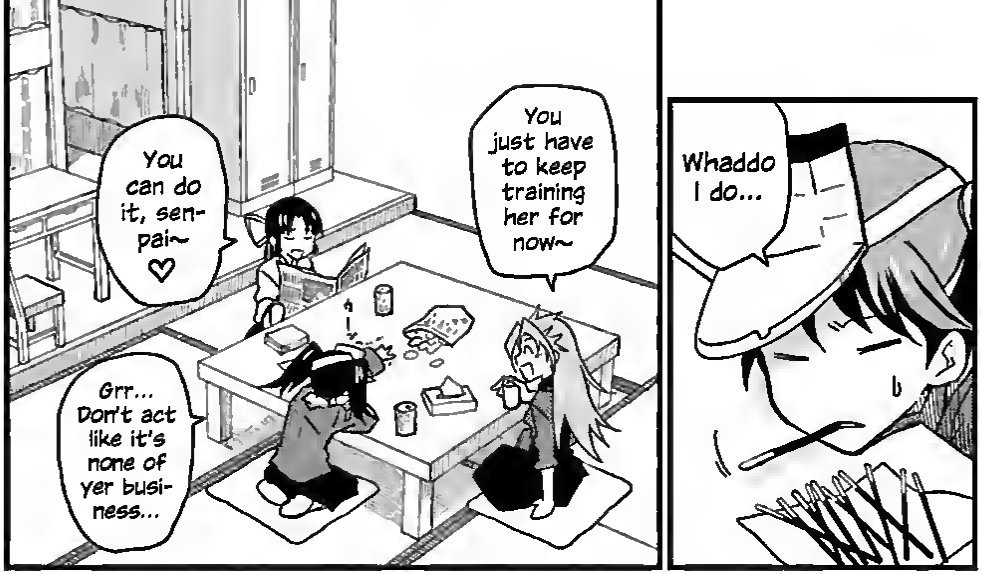






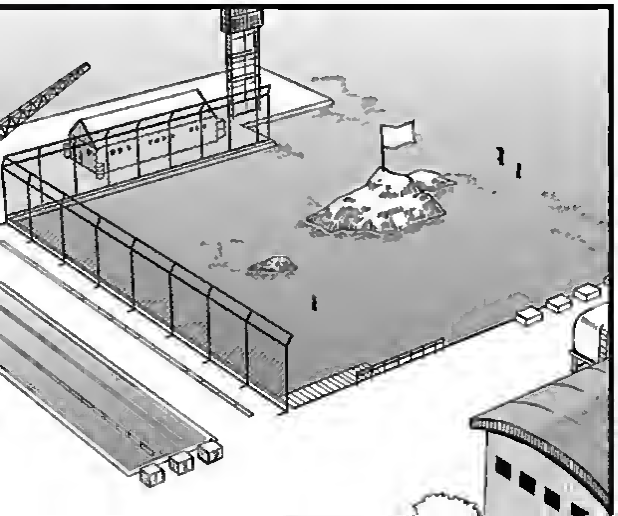
Nicely done!
Hup!

Now you're up, Chi-yoda-!
R-Right!
ヤチャ
Let's see...
First, I...
You can do it, Chiyo-da-!
Ah-! That's quite the flight deck~
I'm tangled up-!
Ahh hm!
Huh?
Ahh, stop it-!



You can do it, senpai~ ♡
You just have to keep training her for now~
Grr... Don't act like it's none of yer business...
Whaddo I do...

Kaga-san pushed her onto us. Guess that's reason enough.
Hang on. Now that I've said it, how's this our business?
Kaga is really just shy around strangers.
She doesn't even use planes the same as us!



ニヤ

Chi-yoda?
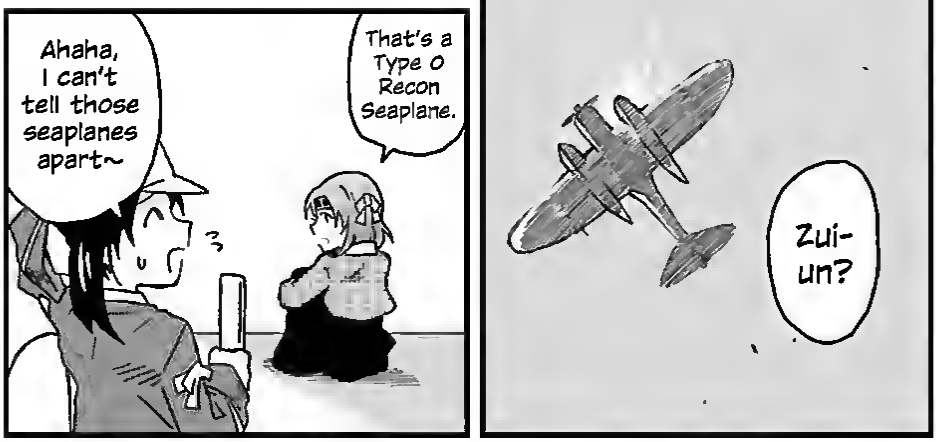
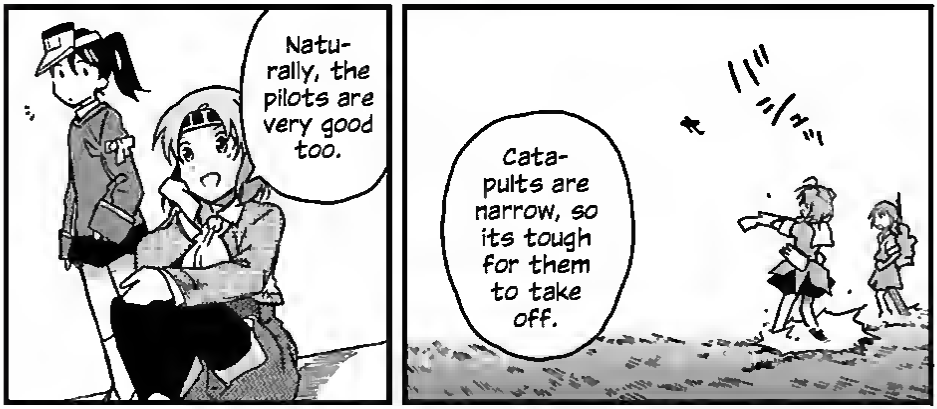
Let's see, next sortie is...
What's she lookin' at up here?



Ahaha, I can't tell those seaplanes apart~
That's a Type O Recon Seaplane.
Zui-un?



Natu-rally, the pilots are very good too.
Cata-pults are narrow, so its tough for them to take off.

Were trained by me when I was a seaplane tender.
They all...
That Type O, and the Zuiun over there,

That's right...
Chiyoda's been using seaplanes this whole time.
Since she became a carrier, she must've been separated from the fairies she grew close with.
It's only natural she's having a hard time adapting.
It was rough goin' for me at first too.
My name's Kyuu-jou! You can count on me!
Lv. 1
I was the first carrier assigned here at Kure.
But soon there was Junyou an' Hiyou, then Kaga came along.
I couldn't hold many planes, so I didn't get to sortie much.
An' that's why I made sure to train each of my fairies real good.

Chi-yoda,
Stick your hands out.
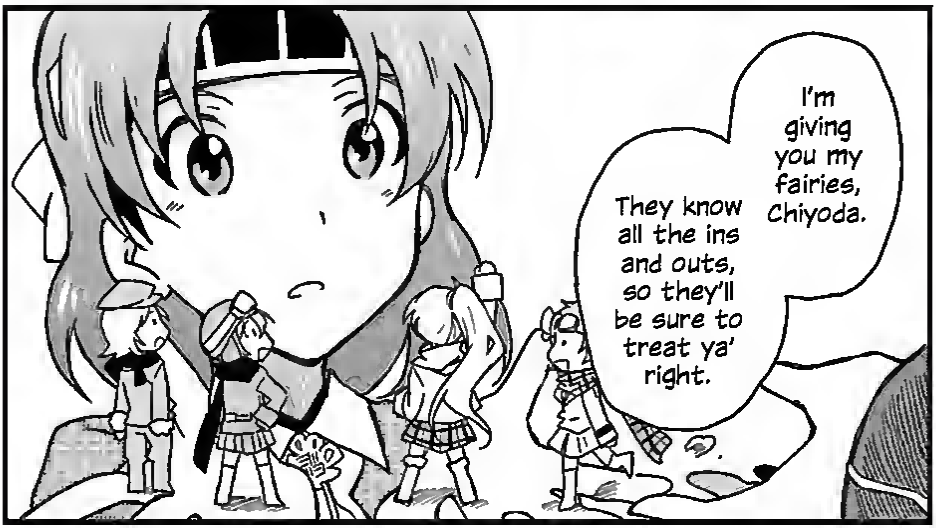
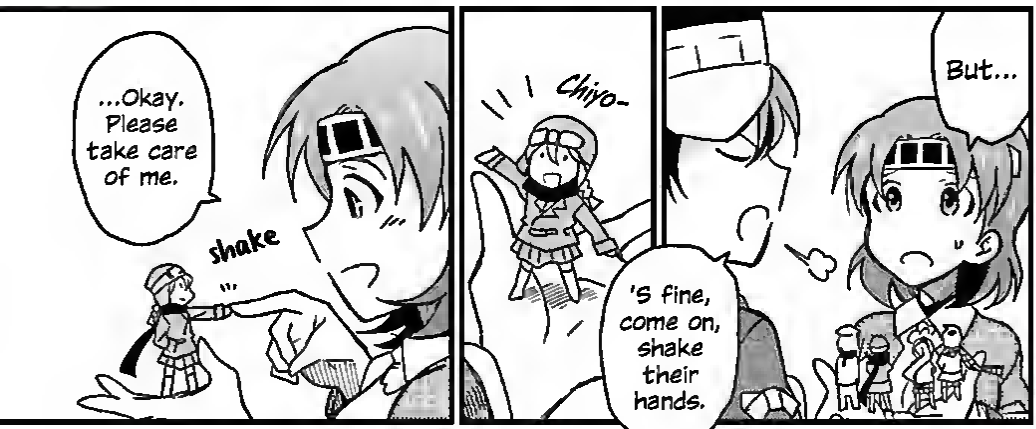
You guys OK with this?



I'm giving you my fairies, Chiyoda.
They know all the ins and outs, so they'll be sure to treat ya' right.



But...
Chiyo-
'S fine, come on, shake their hands.
...Okay. Please take care of me.
shake

Shootin' down planes is nothin', what matters is heart!
You gave her all of your fairies?
And you were all just declared Ace...
Huh-!?
Are you in here, Ryuu-jou?
Ah!
F-Fif-ty...
After all, when she gets her last remodel, she'll have 59 slots.
Still, Chiyoda's probably gonna be the next Ace.
I changed my mind! Gimme my girls back, you titty monster!
Ehh-!? They're mine now-!
Every-one, I brought back pizza.
Oh hh-!!
Look at this! I got a letter back from my sister!
And she's joining us here next month! Ehehe~
Ryuu-jou...?
Shake
Shake
